When Sissy Alice woke up she realised she was sitting on her pink silk knickerd bottom.

Her little blue dress was up around her waist and she pulled it down. Coyly and aware that there might be people watching her and indeed the there were.

Sissy Mistress stood a little distance away looking disapprovingly at Sissy Alice. Sissy Mistressâ?? gaze caused Sissy Alice to blush and became excited a hot red, tinting her cheeks and a hot blush that spread down her chest making her small pink nipples tingle delightfully.

Alice, who was always well mannered and loved to be a good girl remembered herself the jumped to her feet, curtseying, politely.

There were two odd looking men with Mistress, who were sitting back to back and bound securely with rope.

These are Tweedledum and Tweedledumber, Aliceâ?• said Mistress. â??They are rather unremarkable submissives, even by submissive standards. The fact one might remark how unremarkable they are is the most remarkable thing about themâ??

And kicked one of the them sharply in the arm

â??Thankyou Mistressâ?• They both said together

Sissy Alice finished straightening her skirt apron and chastity cage as she loved to look and feel prim and proper at all times.

She felt the eyes of the men lusting over her as she pulled her little white stockings up neatly and smiled and curtseyed again at Mistress.

â??Curioser and curiouserâ?• Said Alice as she began skipping down the pink path that had suddenly appeared in front of her, in her perfectly white patent princess shoes towards Sissyland.
