Sexy sissy spa day

Description

My most recent sissy soirÃ©e was described as a â??sexy sissy spa dayâ?• by one attendee

Mistress waved her magic wand (and did a few other nifty tricks with it throughout the session) and off we went; a sissy maid, a school girl, some kind of corseted feminised gimp creature and I down the sissy rabbit hole.

This session was a low key affair, with gentle pink hypno spirals and a lot of live sissy hypno , At one point , via the magic of sissy Hypno the sissies ended up suspended in a web of pink satin ribbons in a Barbie pink glittering crystal cave, where the soft pink glittery essence traced the warm curve of your body , sending pink glitter tingles into your feminine core â?¦

There was a lot of dressing up and styling of outfits, a variety of interesting sensations were generated by mistress with various implements as part of the stories being told and a spanking demonstration on a very grateful volunteer, involving Mistressâ?? large collection of vicious leather tawses; all of which have been gifted by various admirers â?¦

My favourite impact play item is an African bull whip which is hand whittled from a truck tyre and which in Africa is used to drive oxen across the Serengeti. It was partially a gift although I did exchange it for a donation to a charity that raises money for women in Africa who are victims of domestic violence. A charity that raised money selling less salubrious items , made by African women to the well off and ethically minded consumers of West London .

I do like the bull whip; especially the story behind it but unfortunately it gets limited use as you need the hide of an African oxen to take more than a couple of licks from it before you need to start shouting â??pineapple â?? or â??papayaâ?? or whatever the safe word is that youâ??ve forgotten and end up running through an entire fruit salad whilst being ripped a new asshole, or several whilst trying to remember it.

And of course there was the usual modelling and pole dancing which comes as standard with a session at the London Sissy School .

It was a delightful event. I think everyone got to connect a little with their inner princess . And so did I.
